MYSTER NEWS.

MISS LIZIE BURROWS.—Miss L. A. Burrows, a farmer residing near May Hill, Adams County, Ohio, and Mrs. John Adamson of West Union, deputy sheriff of said county, arrived in this city, in pursuit of a negro horse thief. The thief, whose name was not learned, went to Mr. Adamson's house last Monday evening and tried to secure lodging for the night. The men folks all being away at the time attending church at May Hill, the members of the family who were at home, being afraid to harbor the negro, turned him away. On Mr. Adamson's return he suspected the negro of being a bad character, and visited his stable to see that all was right. He found his horse all in their stalls and retired for the night. Tuesday morning on going out to attend to feeding his stock he discovered that one of his best horses had been stolen. He started in pursuit of the thief, and at West Union called in the assistance of deputy sheriff John Adamson. They traced the thief to Aberdeen, over forty miles from where the animal was stolen, and found that he had crossed to this place about one hour before their arrival. Coming to this city, they secured the services of detective Hedfin. Upon investigation it was found that the thief had gone out the Fleming pike. As it was late the pursuers decided to rest in this city. Early Wednesday morning, Mr. Adamson and detective Hedfin renewed the pursuit. A dispatch received from them Wednesday afternoon stated that they had captured the thief and recovered the stolen animal near Mt. Sterling, Montgomery County. Mr. Hedfin returned to this place late last night. He has not been seen, but it was learned from deputy-sheriff Adamson, who remained here, that the thief had been released shortly after his capture. The reason assigned for turning him loose was that he was crazy. Mr. Adamson is to be congratulated on the recovery of his horse. The pursuit was a tedious one—about ninety miles having been traveled. The thief, however, should have been taken back and punished, and not turned loose upon the public.

THE KATIE STOCKDALE.—The Katie Stockdale passed down this morning. The prospects are good for another rise in a few days. River falling at Pittsburgh for four feet ten inches in channel. Kanawha three feet one inch at Charleston and falling. The Spring Hill with a tow of empties passed up Wednesday evening for the Kanawha. The Bonanza, Wednesday, had the blue ribbon trip of the season, in the way of bridal parties. Five happy couples, three from this place and two from above here, were among the passengers.

REV. J. D. WALSH.—A. M. preaches in the M. E. Church at 7 o'clock this evening. His reputation as a speaker and his numerous admirers in this community insure a good audience. Everybody is invited.

DR. S. L. HENK.—formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, is dead. His remains were interred at Lexington last Tuesday. He was a brother of ex-Governor John L. Henk, and had served faithfully in the ministry for nearly half a century.

Something to be Happy About.—When a man is only a little better, he looks up and is more cheerful than he was. Mr. John W. Williams, of White Rock, Arkansas, had long been an invalid and a sufferer. He now writes: "I have been much pleased with Brown's Iron Bitters, and now believe that I am perfectly well. No physician could have secured a better result than that in his practice. To be had of any respectable drugstore."

Cutting.—About half-past nine o'clock last evening John Moore and William Warfield, both gentlemen of color from Washington, had a difficulty near the corner of the Baptist Church, this city. Moore did some very artistic carving upon the person of Warfield, cutting him four times, twice in the right chest, once in the back near the left shoulder blade, and once in the right side. Dr. A. G. Browning was called in and dressed the wounds. None of them are considered serious except the one in the right chest.

Gorton's New Orleans Minstrels possess the faculty of pleasing. It contains a number of really first-class artists in all branches of the minstrel profession. The combat clog dancing and the knightly tournament are strong features of the entertainment, while the fannings of the end men and the excellent singing in the first part will be remembered by the visitors for a long time. The house was packed to the doors last night, and the indications are that the same state of things will prevail all the week. The playing of the Gold Band is as fine as anything that has been heard in the musical line in this city.—(Pittsburg, (Daily) Post.

This residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lovel, of Forest avenue, Fifth Ward, was the scene of a joyous party Wednesday evening. It was the former's birthday, and Mrs. Lovel, aided by a number of their most intimate friends, quietly made preparations to celebrate the event. The surprise to Mr. Lovel was a complete one. The evening was passed pleasantly and the guests were elegantly entertained. Refreshments comprised of all the delicacies of the season were served at a late hour. Among those present were Mrs. Butterfield, of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mrs. T. Y. Nesbitt, Mr. and Mrs. George Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. G. Sanborn, Mr. A. H. Means and Rev. H. B. Taylor and wife, of this city, and Mr. W. P. Larew, of St. Louis.

A Horse Thief Captured.

Last Tuesday afternoon, Mr. J. A. Lawson, a farmer residing near May Hill, Adams County, Ohio, and Mrs. John Adamson of West Union, deputy sheriff of said county, arrived in this city, in pursuit of a negro horse thief. The thief, whose name was not learned, went to Mr. Adamson's house last Monday evening and tried to secure lodging for the night. The men folks all being away at the time attending church at May Hill, the members of the family who were at home, being afraid to harbor the negro, turned him away. On Mr. Adamson's return he suspected the negro of being a bad character, and visited his stable to see that all was right. He found his horse all in their stalls and retired for the night. Tuesday morning on going out to attend to feeding his stock he discovered that one of his best horses had been stolen. He started in pursuit of the thief, and at West Union called in the assistance of deputy sheriff John Adamson. They traced the thief to Aberdeen, over forty miles from where the animal was stolen, and found that he had crossed to this place about one hour before their arrival. Coming to this city, they secured the services of detective Hedfin. Upon investigation it was found that the thief had gone out the Fleming pike. As it was late the pursuers decided to rest in this city. Early Wednesday morning, Mr. Adamson and detective Hedfin renewed the pursuit. A dispatch received from them Wednesday afternoon stated that they had captured the thief and recovered the stolen animal near Mt. Sterling, Montgomery County. Mr. Hedfin returned to this place late last night. He has not been seen, but it was learned from deputy-sheriff Adamson, who remained here, that the thief had been released shortly after his capture. The reason assigned for turning him loose was that he was crazy. Mr. Adamson is to be congratulated on the recovery of his horse. The pursuit was a tedious one—about ninety miles having been traveled. The thief, however, should have been taken back and punished, and not turned loose upon the public.

Since writing the above we learn from Captain Hedfin, that the thief was overtaken three miles beyond Mt. Sterling. He proved to be a negro raised by Dr. Yantis of Fleming County, and has been a cripple for some years. He has always been considered a half-witted fellow and feeling that no jury would convict him, the officers released him near Sharpsburg. Captain Hedfin declined credit for the speedy manner in which he ran the thief down and recovered the stolen animal. The trip taken is one that is not often made, about one hundred and fifteen miles having been traveled in a buggy in one day by him in the pursuit and return.

Key-Downing.—The marriage of Mr. W. R. Key and Miss Narcissa J. Downing was appropriately solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Charles Downing, the Rev. W. W. Hall, of the Christian Church, officiating. The parties all reside in Washington precinct and are connected with some of the oldest and most influential families of the county. The bride, always beautiful, never looked more lovely than on this happy occasion, and the groom, a young and prosperous farmer, bore his honors with becoming grace. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, about one hundred of the immediate friends and relatives of the parties witnessed the ceremony. The presents were numerous and costly. The happy couple left by the steamer Bonanza for an extended tour. The BULLETIN joins with their many friends in wishing the couple all the happiness and prosperity imaginable.

Parker-Chancellor.

One of the leading social events of the season was the marriage at Shannon Church, at half past three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, of Mr. John T. Parker and Miss Allie B. Chancellor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Spates of the M. E. Church, South, and was a beautiful and impressive one. The bride is a resident of Sardis precinct. She was the central figure and never looked lovelier. The groom was proud of his conquest, as he had a right to be, and smilingly received the congratulations of his many friends. Both the parties belong to some of the oldest and most highly honored families of county. They left by the Bonanza for Cincinnati, Chicago, and other places. The BULLETIN wishes the happy couple every success in their future life. The BULLETIN joins with their many friends in wishing the couple all the happiness and prosperity imaginable.

Have you Tongaine in a case to prevent recurrence of hemorrhoids, and am very much pleased with the result. It has been more efficacious in producing the desired effect than any remedy I have ever used in that case.

THOMAS PEARCE, colored, was arrested Wednesday, in this city, on the charge of willfully and maliciously shooting and wounding, with intent to kill, a negro named James Foster. At the examining trial, Wednesday afternoon before Magistrate Grant and Marsh, Pearce was held to answer the charge at the January term of the Circuit Court. The shooting occurred the latter part of last March, near Orangeburg. Foster and a friend, Will Brown, had been out to a neighbor's, one moonlight night, and were returning home when they were approached by some one and shot at five or six times. Foster was wounded in the arm by one of the shots. They had no quarrel and no words were passed at the time. Although they had no acquaintance with Pearce at the time, both identified him at the trial as the one who did the shooting. Pearce left the county shortly afterwards. He returned here some time in September, from Bath County, where he had spent the summer, and was arrested by Deputy Marshals Hedfin and Dawson on the charge of poisoning some horses near Owingsville. He was taken back to Bath and was held to answer the charge, but the grand jury failed to find an indictment against him. He was released from custody some three or four weeks ago and returned to this county. At his examining trial, Wednesday, his bail was fixed at $100, in default of which he was committed to jail to await the next term of court.

REVOLTING EXPOSURE

HUNDREDS OF SMALL POX PATIENTS DYING UNATTENDED

Sickening Horrors in St. Roche's Hospital. The Despicable Conduct of the city Authorities—Killed—Inevitable—Unrelenting Sickening Miseries.

MONTREAL, Oct. 19.—The city has been horrified by the stories of a number of patients who have just been discharged from the civil hospital. These revelations show a terrible condition of affairs, and the exposure has created profound indignation throughout the community. The charges, which are the most revolting in their nature, are made against the St. Roche's, the old civil hospital, situated at the base of the mountain and under the care of the Sisters of the Grey Nuns.

There are at present 180 patients confined in this hospital. To attend to this large number of the afflicted there are only six nurses and two women servants. The care of the patients has, therefore, been most outrageous. The fault is due in no respect to the sisters, whose self devotion and care during the present epidemic, have won for them the gratitude of the community. The outrage is due again to the parsimonious conduct of the city officials, who, although they must have been aware of the terrible manner in which the inmates were being treated, yet seem to have done nothing whatever.

The same incapacity that has characterized them throughout is shown in these events. No money should have been spared to obtain the proper assistance, and yet all that the city would pay to women to attend the afflicted in St. Roche's hospital, was $8 per month, and the men received $11.

The consequences were that it was impossible to secure nurses, and the patients instead of being attended to by competent nurses, were left for the most part to the voracious patients who were entirely ignorant of what was required. A patient was thrown from the ambulance by two drunken drivers, and he died from the shock.

A man who was convalescing also had his leg broken by a fall, and lay and died from the injury, the condition of his leg having been only discovered after his death.

A young Irish woman, named O'Connor, who was engaged to be married to a man in the hospital, became demented because he had died on the day she arrived there. Men dragged her to a bed by order of the nurses in charge.

Several parties declared that they never had any medical attendance. It is likely that this hospital will be condemned and destroyed.

The isolating squad, with three ambulances, unraveled some terrible scenes during the day. In one place on Young street the police had to take a child by force from its mother, the unfortunate creature fighting for it until she fell exhausted. She then ran about screaming, and finally fell in a fit. On recovering she utterly refused to go to the hospital with her child, and was left in her square.

One of the most distressing scenes of the epidemic was witnessed at St. Cynegonde. A small patient, in a fit of delirium, rushed naked into the street, screaming that the devil was after him. He managed to evade his pursuers for some time.
